

BOARD OFFICERS

The President of the School Board shall have the usual powers of a president. The President shall conduct all meetings, appoint any necessary committee, and take such other action necessary so as to insure the transaction and other duties essential to the operations of school business.

The Vice-President shall serve as chairperson of meetings held in the absence of the President and assume the duties of the President in their absence.

The Secretary shall keep records of all meetings, post all notices required by law, prepare and sign all legal documents, assume the duties of the President in the event both the President and Vice-President are absent, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

Legal Counsel

The Board may appoint a legal counsel to advise the Board and the Superintendent and others as designated by the Superintendent on specific legal problems and to make such recommendations as required. The legal counsel shall also represent the Board where required by law.

Memberships and Conferences

The Board may maintain membership in National and State School Boards Associations, as well as membership in any other educational organizations which the Superintendent and Board find valuable to the District. Further, the Board encourages attendance at conferences at the local, State, and National level.
